

Position: Research Chemist
Location: Blue Ash, Ohio
Application
Method: HR@neasecorp.com

Essential Functions

- New product and process development in support of the company's business plan
 - Concept Analysis – ability to research and evaluate the feasibility of commercialization routes to new products
 - Support the scale-up, development and trouble-shooting of new processes and new product production for commercialization.
 - Provide technical expertise across the research function
 - Modify existing products to provide new applications/end-use
- Provide technical support for other groups within the company such as Sales, Marketing and Manufacturing

Skill Requirements

- Demonstrate creative approaches to new product development
- Ability to interpret and communicate experimental results
- Excellent planning, time management and organization skills
- Ability to effectively manage projects by setting objectives and identifying resources to accomplish goals

Professional Requirements

- Minimum M.S. in Chemistry
- Minimum 5 years industry experience in synthesis of surfactants / hydrotropes (sulfonation preferred)
- Ability to innovate in commercializing new products

Qualified candidates may submit their resume, cover letter and salary requirements to: HR@neasecorp.com. Phone calls and drop-ins will not be accepted.

Nease Corporation is an equal opportunity employer and offers competitive salary and benefits including health, dental and life insurance, 401k and paid vacation. Relocation assistance is available.